Adjudicator Biographies

Hannah Bankston

Hannah is known for her love of teaching and communicating with children. She has lived in Alaska most of her life and grew up studying music by hymn singing at her church. She completed her Bachelor of Arts in Music with an emphasis in Voice and Communications from The Master's University in Santa Clarita, California. While Hannah's focus is on vocal instruction, she also has a desire to teach piano, communications, choral techniques and stage administration. Her experience directing include Alaska Theatre of Youth's 'Beauty and the Beast, Jr.', 'Seussical the Musical, Jr.', 'The Stinky Cheese Man and Other Fairly Stupid Tales.', and 'Mary Poppins, Jr.' She currently has a small in-home studio and loving life with her husband and their three sons.

Kirsten Blair

Kirsten Blair, soprano, enjoys a vibrant musical lifestyle as a soloist, performer, private teacher, and classroom instructor. Kirsten has played several principal roles with Opera Fairbanks, Anchorage Opera, University of Alaska Fairbanks Opera Workshop, and internationally with Théâtre Roger Barat in France, International Summer Opera Festival of Morelia in Mexico, and the Lowveld Chamber Music Association in South Africa. Selected roles include Micaëla (Bizet's "Carmen"), Rose (Weill's "Street Scene"), Lucy (Menotti's "The Telephone"), Frasquita ("Carmen"), and Roxy LaRue in the World Premiere of "The Color of Gold." A passionate teacher and coach, she maintains a virtual and in-person studio, and enjoys working with singers in group and workshop environments. Kirsten is currently serving her community as an Adjunct Professor in the UAF Music Department (Private and Class Voice), the Board Past-President of Fairbanks Light Opera Theatre, Director of the Great Land Sounds Barbershop Chorus, Vice-President of the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) Alaska Chapter, and Outreach Coordinator for the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival.

Crista Cady

Crista grew up performing with the Missoula Children's Theatre and studied vocal performance at the University of Montana. She earned a BA in music from UW, and Master of Music Education from USM. Crista is Level III Orff certified and taught K-5 music for 10 years. Crista toured with Portland, Oregon's Tears of Joy Puppet Theatre, and Japan's Furusato Caravan. She directed children's theatre, taught creative dramatics, puppetry, and musical theatre workshops. In Alaska, Crista has played 'Maria' in The Sound of Music, 'Anna' in The King and I, and sings in the Anchorage Opera Chorus. Crista is a past president of the Alaska Music Educators Association.

Donald Endres

Don is delighted to adjudicate in this year's Alaska NATS Music Theater Auditions. Don holds a music degree from UAA with Departmental Honors, is seen regularly in the Anchorage Opera chorus, and has performed in other venues and groups in Anchorage and Alaska. Currently, he is preparing for a role in his reduction of the Gilbert and Sullivan classic "Ruddigore, or The Witches Curse", which will be presented at UAA this November. Don is a past winner of the AK NATS advanced artist classical competition, and greatly appreciates the experiences and support that AK NATS has given.

Yanik Giroux

Yanik is a graduate from University of Montreal, Canadian College of Performing Arts and Chemainus Theatre Acting Program. Musical Theatre and CCM specialist, he has taught at Canadian College of Performing Arts, Victoria Conservatory of Music and is Artistic Director for Pacifique en Chanson in Vancouver. Stage credits include A Chorus Line, Hello Dolly!, Jacques Brel, Urinetown, Little Shop Of Horrors, Hair, Singin' In The Rain, Rocky Horror Show, Aladdin. Yanik is a long-term member of NATS, Associate of Trinity College London-UK, attended the CCM Vocal Pedagogy Institute and holds certification in Somatic Voicework™-The LoVetri Method.

Briana Glasionov

Briana is a classroom music educator in the Anchorage School District. With seven years of experience teaching voice and piano lessons at a private music studio, Briana also holds a Bachelors in Music Education as well as a Masters of the Arts in Teaching. She has participated in many competitions and ensembles over the years, placing first in the 2020 NATS musical theatre regional competition as well as performing in multiple jazz and opera ensembles. Her passions lead her to teach and perform in Anchorage, Alaska, and abroad. In addition, she has been a member for five years and is currently the treasurer for NATS.

Dr. Mari Hahn

Dr. Mari Hahn is the current District Governor for the Alaska Chapter of NATS. She is a Professor of Music at the University of Alaska Anchorage and the Head of the Voice Division. She is the director of the UAA Opera and Music Theater Ensemble and maintains a full voice studio. This year marks the first Alaska Advanced Artist Training, a collaboration with Anchorage Opera established by Mari Hahn and Ben Robinson. Dr. Hahn is a certified Alexander Technique Instructor, and frequently offers clinics and workshops in the US, Canada and Japan. Upcoming is a residency at the Florida Gulf Coast University, for the Bower Music and Theater programs in the fall of 2025. She is also a frequent performer of art song, opera and oratorio. Upcoming include the role of the Mother in Madama Butterfly with Anchorage Opera, and the soprano soloist in Stravinsky's Les Noces with the Anchorage Concert Chorus.

Christine Keene

Christine is Owner and Lead Instructor at her voice studio, Solstice Vocal Arts. Christine is also the Executive Director of Alaska Theatre of Youth, founder of the Alaska Music Theatre Festival and Alaska Independent Music Teachers. In addition to teaching voice, she enjoys music directing for musicals with various companies around town. She is an accomplished Music Theatre performer and has been enjoying performing with Anchorage Cabarets, Sparkles Productions, Cyrano's and her own projects. As a performer she is known for her brilliant acting, comedic timing, infectious positivity, and delightful stage presence.

Autumn Levy

Autumn Levy is an accomplished music educator and performer with a solid academic background in music education. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Music Education, focusing on Vocal Training, from the University of Alaska Anchorage in 2022, followed by a Master's degree in Secondary Education with an emphasis on Music from the University of Alaska Southeast in 2023. She is a public school music teacher and teaches private piano and voice lessons. Additionally, Autumn serves as a music director for local theatre companies. Her commitment to music education fosters growth and appreciation for the arts in students of all ages within the community.

Chester Mainot

Chester is very honored and humbled to adjudicate in this year's Alaska NATS Music Theatre Audition. Chester loves singing, performing and has been doing musical theater and opera since 2009. He made his musical theatre debut as Chip Tolentino in Cyrano's 2010 production of 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. Chester won first place in the 2021 AK NATS adult division musical theatre competition. In 2019, he received 2 awards; Anchorage Press Picks Best Vocalist male category and broadwayworld.com's (Regional) Best Actor in a Musical (professional) for his role in I Love You, Your Perfect, Now Change (Cyrano's Theatre - 2019). Chester also performed in a Christmas concert held at Carnegie Hall in NYC with the NYC Symphony Orchestra back in December 2012 and 2013. Passion for music and arts makes him a whole person!

Carolyn Merrill

Carolyn Merrill is a lifelong Alaskan who has been an active member of the local arts community in Anchorage since childhood. She has always loved singing and studied voice and piano growing up. Carolyn studied voice at the University of Alaska, Anchorage and has participated in performances with Anchorage Community Theatre, Anchorage Concert Chorus, the Anchorage Opera, and UAA as well as playing music in church for many years. She has been teaching voice in her own private studio for nearly twenty years and particularly enjoys working with youth. Carolyn is classically trained and fell in love with opera at a very young age, but her absolute favorite genres to sing and teach are contemporary and music theatre... pretty much anything that involves belting! Carolyn loves teaching singers how to explore their voice in order to sing many different styles and become well rounded performers.

Linda Porter

Linda holds Bachelors Degrees in Music Performance (Voice) and 2 Education Degrees El. Music Education (K-8 certified) & El. Education from UAA. She has enjoyed teaching private voice lessons for over 30 years in the Anchorage area. She joined UAA as an Adjunct Professor the Fall of 2018. Currently, Katie performs with a vocally diverse group bands: jazz/blues trio Ginger & Ale, dance band Velvet La La, 90's acoustic trio Memory Bliss, postmodern meets Andrews Sisters Choice Bit of Calico and is the featured vocalist for the Alaska Jazz Ensemble. She also performs regularly with Anchorage Opera. Katie is a private voice instructor of her own studio, Songbird Studios. She is very proud to be an educator and performer!

Meghann Welsh

Meghann is a multifaceted soprano whose creative work spans opera, country and blues, free improvisation, and contemporary and baroque chamber music. Her own projects aim to create cinematic soundscapes using myriad vocal timbres that range from the familiar and intimate to the forbidding and sonically overwhelming. Fascination with the psychology of singing has guided her academic research as well as her teaching methodology. Meghann earned her MM in Vocal Performance from San Francisco State University (2009) and is working toward her PhD in Music with an emphasis in Integrative Studies and Vocal Performance from UC San Diego (ABD).

Maura Wharton

Maura Wharton graduated with a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from the University of Alaska Anchorage. After graduating, she spent time in Paris and Périgueux, France singing roles in La belle Hélène and La Périochole by Jacques Offenbach. Maura has sung in the Anchorage Opera Chorus for many past productions and she sang the role of Papagena with Anchorage Opera in Mozart's The Magic Flute. Maura has competed in the NATS Artist Awards Competition in Portland and the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions in Chicago. She has won first place prizes in the Anchorage Concert Chorus Scholarship Competition, NATS Musical Theatre Competition, NATS Classical Competition, and the NATS Northwest Region Musical Theatre Competition.
